Last year's English style Classic was a huge success! The course design and layout make it one of the most unique meets in the entire Midwest.

Please FAX 608-363-2044 the enclosed sheet with the list of your intent to participate by August 15 so that we can have chest tags printed. More detailed meet information will be mailed out by September 1, 2016.

Awards- Collegiate Races- Trophy to the winning team (men & women)
 Long Sleeve T-Shirts to the top 15 runners (men & women)

Course- English style, with jumps consisting of logs and bales of hay, two creek crossings (very level crossings, no severe jumps), through the city park and countryside. (99% grass and dirt roads with a few road crossings) We have eliminated the road section of the course through the cemetery. Spikes or cross country flats recommended. Course is located at Dr. Leeson Park on Milwaukee Road (Hwy 81) on the east side of Beloit.

Dressing- Shower facilities are available at the Sports Center on the Beloit College campus. Please bring your own towels and locks. Bathrooms, water, and a trainer will be at the meet site.

Questions- Please contact Brian Bliese, Cross Country Coordinator at (608)363-2235
